ABOUT THE ACADEMY OF INTERACTIVE ARTS & SCIENCES

The Academy of Interactive Arts & Sciences (AIAS) was founded in 1996 as a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to promote, advance and recognize the outstanding achievements in the interactive entertainment industry worldwide. The Academy conducts its annual awards show, the D.I.C.E. Awards, to celebrate and honor creative accomplishments in the field. To further enhance awareness of the Academy's vision, the organization created the D.I.C.E. (Design, Innovate, Communicate, Entertain) Summit in 2002, a once yearly conference dedicated to exploring approaches to the creative process and artistic expression as they uniquely apply to the development of interactive entertainment. In 2013 the Academy launched D.I.C.E. Europe to cater to the European games market. We have more than 30,000+ members, including Microsoft, Sony, Nintendo, Wargaming, Bethesda Game Studios, Ubisoft, Valve Software, Supergiant Games, Gearbox Software, Activision Blizzard, and Insomniac Games, among others.

D.I.C.E. SUMMIT 2023

The D.I.C.E. (Design, Innovate, Communicate, Entertain) Summit® is an exclusive, high-level gathering of the brightest and most creative minds across many industries to discuss the trends and the future of the interactive entertainment industry. Attendees include all of the major publishers and developers. The three-day event will be held in Las Vegas, at tResorts World on February 21-23, 2023. More information on D.I.C.E. Summit® can be found at www.dicesummit.org.

26TH ANNUAL D.I.C.E. AWARDS

Since 1996, the D.I.C.E. Awards have recognized games, individuals and development teams that have contributed to the advancement of the multi-billion dollar worldwide entertainment software industry. This year the D.I.C.E Awards are celebrating their 25th anniversary. The D.I.C.E. Awards are the most credible, respected and recognized awards for the interactive entertainment community with voting cast by members of the Academy's 30,000+ membership base. The voting process is supervised and certified by Votenet Solutions, Inc. For more information on the D.I.C.E. Awards, please visit www.interactive.org.

GAME MAKER'S SKETCHBOOK GALLERY

Co-founded by the Academy of Interactive Arts & Sciences (AIAS), creative production company iam8bit, and communications firm, fortyseven (47), the Game Maker's Sketchbook was born from an industry-wide need and desire to better celebrate the visual arts in games, giving recognition to individuals who contribute incredible visual universes as well as simple joys and lasting impressions in interactive entertainment.

Not simply a showcase of key art and marketing imagery, this project delves deeper, aiming to highlight and celebrate all forms of art related to the craft of making games.
